Jimmy's hobby is being a DUDE. He is very outgoing and not afraid of adults, characters, animals, other children, or the water. I don't think he is afraid of much at all, except maybe BEETS! He jumps in front of the camera to say cheese whenever he sees one. He has an excellent memory for character lines, and can be counted on to take direction extremely well. Jimmy seems to be a teenager in a little kid's body, coming out with some of the funniest comments and facial expressions. He is a very bright and happy child, walking around singing all the time. He can carry a tune too!
